For Parents of College Bound Students

This complimentary seminar presented by Tuition Rx Financial Education Association reveals new ways to meet the high cost of college. With college costs increasing at a much faster rate than general inflation, paying for college can be a daunting task!

Come and learn:

- New cash flow techniques that can give your children the education they deserve without changing your current lifestyle!
- What are "tax scholarships" and are you eligible
- The "right way" to borrow for college to slash thousands of dollars in loan interest costs
- How to get back the money you spend on college using unique cash flow strategies and techniques
- How to rollover your credit card debt into tax deductible education loans and get the IRS to contribute to your college expenses
- Why repositioning your assets to get financial aid is fruitless, but repositioning your debts can help you pay off your entire cost of college in record time
- A shrewd way to get colleges to offer your student grants and scholarships
- How to get your banker to help pay your entire cost of college...at no cost to you
- Why the Baby Boomer phenomenon will DOUBLE the price of college in the next ten years and how to keep this from affecting your finances
- How to restructure your finances like a major corporation to find hidden money for college expenses
- Why today's cost of college could force you to DELAY your retirement by 5 - 7 years and how you can avoid this dilemma
- How to spend less for college and put more money in your retirement
